2025 is moving so quickly
Here is the latest update from my studio...

Last year
I returned to BigCi to use their amazing studios to create new artworks

This time it was all about my journey to the Arctic

Circle and Svalbard

For the second time in 8 years I picked up my brush and painted. I worked again with pastels and discovered the magic of

Cyanotypes

Melt diminishing time, 2024 Acrylic on Canvas 200 x 200 cm.

Cyanotype
and ice on cotton rag 28 x 38 cm.

Mountain Stories I, 2024 Japanese ink and graphite in ZigZag Book on Hahnemuell paper 14 x 140 cm.

Studio Move

This year I decided that instead of paying for storage and not having enough space in my studio to work that I would join the ranks of One+2 Studios in Rozelle and take over one of their large studio spaces

From this empty space to....

To storing all my artworks

And I still have space to work... Yay!

Thanks Lisa Sharkey and the great team from Jim's Taxi Truck, John, his hard working associate Josh and his delightful Leon

For such a swift and trouble free move, on some of Sydney's hottest summer days...

STILL TO COME...

You are receiving this newsletter as you have had dealings with Lea Kannar-Lichtenberger as an artist or Lea & Jens Lichtenberger (Barrister) and in almost all cases requested to be on this list.

Due to the monthly fees that Mailchimp have now imposed I have resumed doing my twice yearly newsletter. I apologise if you are receiving this email and you already have unsubscribed...

If you no longer wish to receive these emails UNSUBSCRIBE here.

I will try my best to unsubscribe you. However as this is a manual system and I am human, sometimes it is difficult to find your original subscribed email address. If your email address has changed please list the email that was used for the subscription and I will do my best... My apologies for any inconvenience, Lea
