Here I will be selling artworks from my Antarctic journeys

Other research and presentations this year...

SCAR conference Pucón Chile

I was invited to give 2 papers at this Open Science (SCAR Scientific Community on Antarctic Research) conference. With over 1400 delegates from across the globe it was an amazing experience. Catching up on the latest science coming out of Antarctica research globally.

POLE TO POLE: an exploration of the Anthropocene in our fragile environments over one polar summer season...

STAGE 2 - THE ARCTIC (Svalbard)

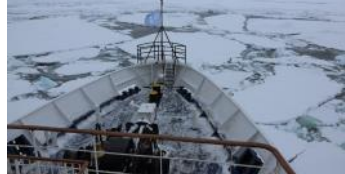

I spent 1 month in Svalbard documenting and researching human impact on these fragile environments to continue my creative narrative in our polar regions. Here are a few images from this research trip with The Arctic Circle Residency and Quark Expeditions

The Antigua - 16 days aboard with The Arctic Circle Residency

Me hydrophone recording on fixed ice shelf

The Ocean Adventurer - 6 days aboard with Quark Expeditions

STILL TO COME...

I am heading BACK to BigCi to use their amazing studios to create new artworks

From Oct 17 to Nov 12

This is an artist residency in the Blue Mountains where I can look at my Arctic research, write and develop new work, whilst also considering and preparing to create a new narrative that will incorporate both polar regions.

There is an OPEN DAY at BigCi - Sunday Feb 10

EVERYONE IS WELCOME...

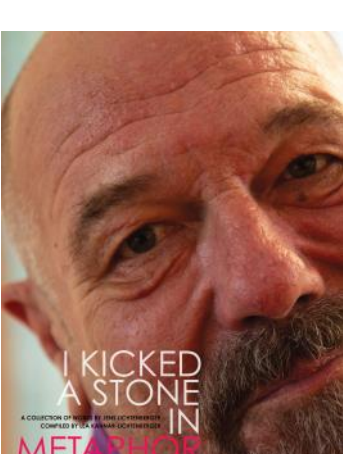

11am till 4 pm - 82 Hanlons Road North, Bilpin NSW 2758

Come and see what I and the other artists in residence have developed from our time here.

If you are there for lunch, please consider bringing food to share...

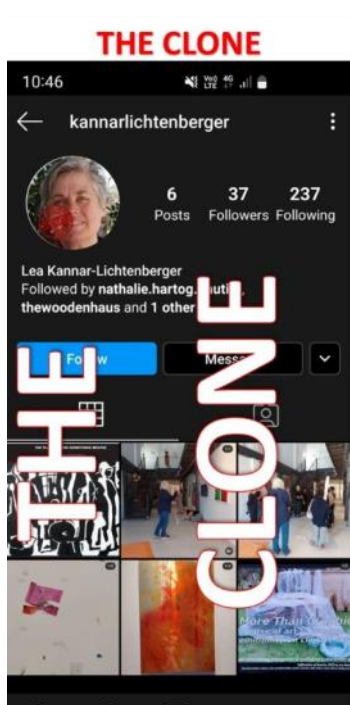

FINALLY...
